

Speaking Out for the Voiceless

This mailing was prepared and published at taxpayer expense.

10th District Human Rights Conference With Congressman Frank Wolf

Come hear from leading experts and advocates on international human rights, and learn how you, too, can become involved in pressing for change.

Saturday, April 29 9:30 a.m. – noon

Loudoun County School Board Administration Building
21000 Education Court
Ashburn, Virginia 20148

For more information visit: www.house.gov/wolf

Panels and Speakers:

Panel I: The Scourge of Sex Trafficking: Modern Day Slavery

- International Trafficking
Eleanor Gaetan, Office of Trafficking in Persons, U.S. State Department
- Sexual Slavery in Our Own Backyard
Katherine Chon, Polaris Project
- Women as Global Commodities
Jeanne Smoot, Tahirih Justice Center

Panel II: Global Human Rights: The Face of Oppression Worldwide

- War and Conflict in Africa Rory Anderson, World Vision
- Religious Freedom in Vietnam
Dr. Nguyen Dinh Thang, Boat People SOS
- Human Rights in China
Bob Fu, China Aid Association
- Repression in North Korea
Michael Horowitz, Hudson Institute

Panel III: How You Can Get Involved: Becoming a Voice for the Voiceless

- Human Rights Advocacy
T. Kumar, Amnesty International
Michael Horowitz, Hudson Institute

This event is free and open to the public.

